that the said Earl Russell, Lord Chelmsford and the Lord Chief Baron did serce to deceive the House of Lords by stating that the charge of falselioud contained is his pritition was false and that he (the deponent) was a colhordiator, wherens the said Earl Russell, four! Chelmsford, and Lord Chief Baron well knew that the charge of falsehood committed by the Lord Chief Baron when Queen's Counsel was Ports at 2 P.M. on MONDAY, the 26th high. perfectly true; that he desired to prefer For Freight or Passage, apply to on indistment against Earl Rossell, Lord Chelinsford, and the Lord Chief Baron for conspiracy, and, therefore, requested the FOR SWATOW, AMOY, AND FOUCH magistrate to take his roughizances in [111] Stenmship medorilance with the Statuto 22nd and 23rd Victoric, cap 17, which required him to do sa Mr. Wason said he had used the very language of Capt. Toppin, will have immediate disputch the best authority on the subject—namely, that for the allow ports. of Archbold on Crimes, under the hand "Conspiracy," pp. 675 and 676, showing for what offences an indictment for conspicuely would lie -- namely, " Proventing the course of justice or projudicing a third party;" and although the statute dal not require the information to be upon outh, yet, on account of the grave charge. ter of the offence and the high position of the parties accused, he had thought it right to ewear tothetruth of the facts stated in the information Mr. Tyrwhitt declined to grant a summons, at the same time stating that the high position the parties would have no influence with him. He would, however, act under the statute, and do what Mr. Wason asked him to do, return the information and take his recognizances to proscente the obargo at the Old Bailey. ----A MUSING DOG CASE.

A singular case of disputed ownership of log came before the Wandsworth police-court. A man named Samuel Buillard squamoned Wil liam Told for the recovery of a black retrieve day, which he said he lost to Ap il, and which. wint by the minie of Bover. The defendant stated that he had had the dog in his possession above ten weeks, and that it answered to the name of Jack. Mr. Ingham, the magistrate, Lara, Master, will have immediate dispatch as asked the two men to try the effect of calling above. tim dog by the minnes which they respectively applied to bun. The defen lant called " Jack and the dog, turned and went to him; standing from and looking up to his face. The dog absolute who said THE First-oluss French burque it appeared a friend y an mul and would answer. to any name. Mr Ingham said he did not know how to decide the ownership, unless be Bose, Master, will have quick dispatch for the adopted King Solomon's plan, and had the dog above port. cut in halves to be divided between the parties. The same one was adjourned for the production of a witness, and of the second occasion the dog was not produced. The defendant, in reply to the magistrate, said the dog had had enough of the police court, and on soming to the court it turned up its nose and went the other way. A witness stated that the dog followed two ladies into his shop a few days before the complainant missed his dog. He kept the dog, as it would not leave the place, and gave it to the defen dont. Mr. Ingham ultimately refused to make any order .- Pall Mall Gazette.

WILL MAKING. Lord Penzance, in giving judgment on a will Thomson, Muster, will load at Whampon for attempting to obtain wills from dying persons | the above port at current rates, and having is rather increasing than otherwise. Some part of her Cargo engaged will neet with quick people seemed to think (esid his lordship) that dispatch. people seemed to think (east his foreship) that as long as there was any life left a dying person. For Freight or Passage, apply to BIRLEY & Co. they were able to say "Yes" or "No" to a question, or to preognise those about them; much FOR MELBOURNE AND SYDNEY. more was required to constitute testamentary THE A.1 Clipper ship inclination let the time for making a will go by it was not because the final hour enine without Capt. McKeon, having the greater portion of his intentions having been carried into effect, her Cargo engaged, will have immediate disthat another person was justified in stopping in patch for the above ports. and doing for him what he ought to have done For Freight or Passage, apply to for himself. In the case which gave rise to these remarks, one Robert Bingham, of Bristol, had propounded the will of his mother, and the judge in summing up the cyldence said it was FRHE Al American Clipper ship not protended that Mrs. Bingham ever gave instructions to any human being for the will, which was prepared at the mere motion of Robert Bingham, or that she knew anything about the will antil the very moment when the attorney and the donor stood by her bedside, and the above port. it was read over to her. The will was a lung Y one, with provisions of a character to challenge the attention of a person whose mind was in full netivity, and she wassupposed to have understood it because she was able to say "Yes," and "Perfectly," and monosyllables of that kind. She was so far incapable of voluntary action that no attempt was even made to get her to make her mark. His lordship added that he did not Captain Orentt, having the greater portion of impute to Robert Bingham any intention to do ber cargo engaged, will load at this and Whamwrong, and he gave him credit for believing pou, and has room for a limited amount of that he was merely carrying out him mother's freight, for which apply to against the will .- Albion.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY. - A remarkable discovery has just been made in the old chaich of St. Gervais, Paris. Sume persons who were repairing the woodwork at due of the sides in the left of the nave discovered a secret door, giving access to a small chapel hitherto not known, the walls of which are entirely covered with excellent paintings in the Renaissance atyle, in good preservation. The church is ex-trainely rich in artistic relica, possessing, among other things, a fine Albert Dover and wremarkable Porngine, besides some stained glass of Jean Churin, the father of the French school of the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth
